Letter to a non-Christian Friend

Dear non-Christian Friend,

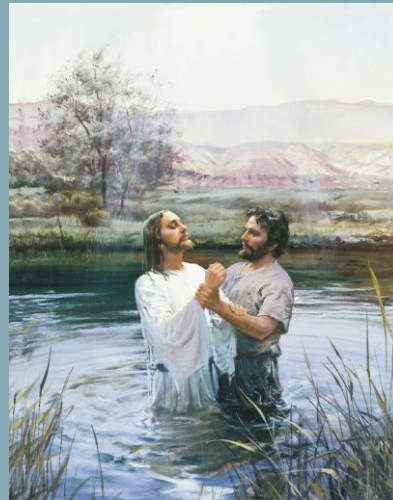

I would like to tell you about my religion. I am a Christian which means I am a follower of Jesus Christ. The duty of a Christian is to go to Church every Sunday and thank God for keeping us safe throughout the week. As a Christian I read the Bible everyday. The Bible is about the Holy Scripture of the Christian religion. The Ten Commandments were made by God who gave them to Moses. The most important commandment for a Christian is to honor your mother and father. There are a total of seven sacraments. In order it goes Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Qurbana, Confession, Holy Matrimony, Holy Orders, and Anointing of the Sick. As a Christian there are many special days that are all connected to God. Some of the most important days are Christmas, Good Friday and Easter. On Christmas we do a long service because it is Jesus Christ's birthday. On Easter we celebrate the day Jesus rose from the dead.

Sincerely

Your Christian Friend

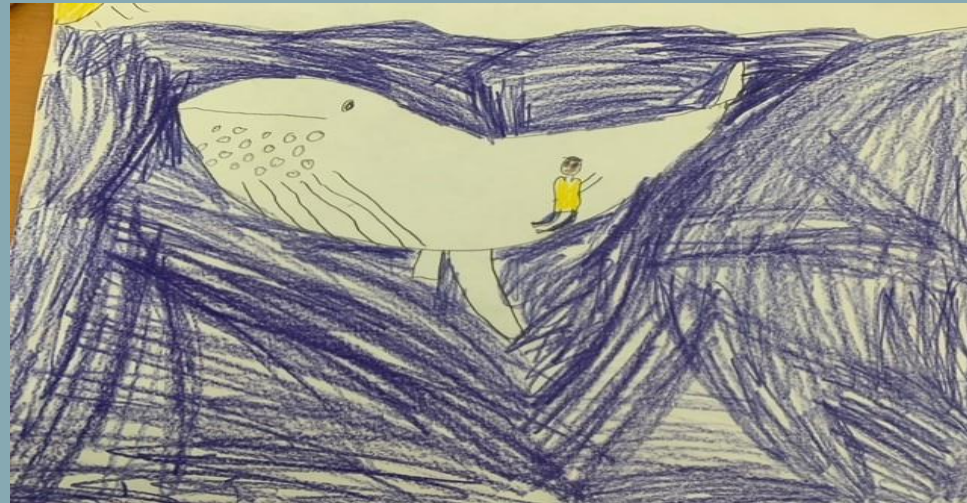

My Favorite Bible Story # 1

My favorite bible story is John the Baptist. It my favorite story because it explains his birth and childhood. In this story something we learn about God is after Christ's baptism the doves came and then God said " This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" Matthew 3:17. Something I can learn from this lesson/story is that when you get baptized you get blessed by the Holy Spirit.

My Favorite Bible Story #2

Another one of my favorite Bible stories is about Jonah. I like that story because it has a couple lessons in it and because I thought it was a fun story as a kid. In this story something we learn about God is that He is always forgiving. Something else that I learned from this story is that you should never disobey God.

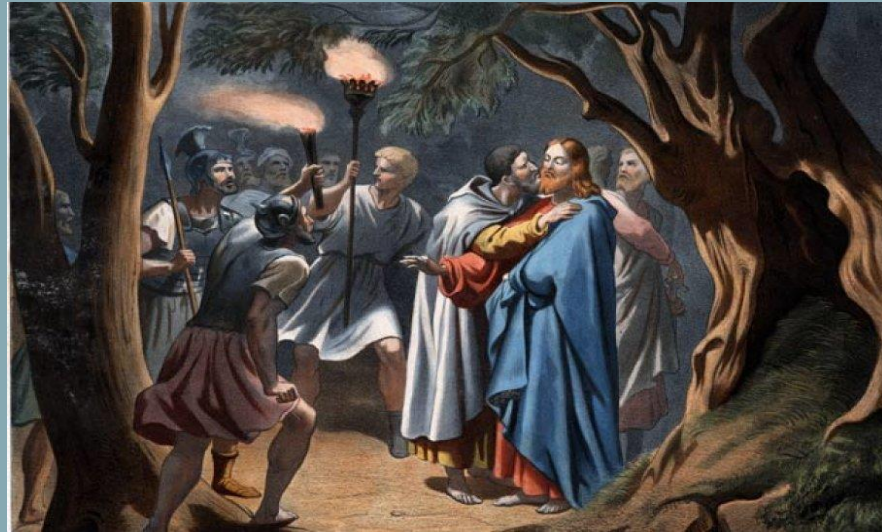

My Favorite Bible Story #3

My 3rd favorite Bible story is the wedding at Cana. I like that story because It is cool how God turned the water into wine. Something we can learn about God is that He can make miracles happen.

Prophecies About Jesus in Old Testament

In Psalms 41:9 it explains how Jesus was betrayed by Judah one of his twelve apostles. In Psalms 55:12-14 it explains more of how Jesus was betrayed by Judah and how he was crucified shortly after.

Acknowledgement

I can thank my Mom and Dad because they helped me understand what to do and how to explain everything. Also because they would help me to focus whenever there were distractions.
